2. Scope

This policy sets the definition of material RPTs and dealing with RPTs.

3. Definitions

All the words and expressions used herein shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Act, SEBI Act 1992, Listing Regulations or applicable rules and regulations made thereunder and any other relevant legislation applicable to the Company.

4. Materiality of Related Party Transactions

The following shall be considered as material RPT.

- A Transaction with a related party shall be considered as material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements or such sum as may be prescribed under Listing Regulations and as amended from time to time.
- B A transaction involving payments made to related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds two percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

5. Policy

- A A related party transaction / contract / arrangement shall be in compliance with the provisions of the Act, Listing Regulations and applicable rules and regulations, as amended from time to time.
- B All related party contracts / arrangements shall be entered on an arm's length basis.
- C Related party contracts / arrangements may deviate from the principle of arm's length basis, provided: (a) it is specifically permitted by law or specifically not prohibited by law; and (b) after prior approval from Audit Committee, Board of Directors and shareholders, as may be required.
- D Audit Committee shall determine, based on facts and circumstances of the case, whether a RPT is "in ordinary course of business" and whether a RPT is "on arm's length" basis.
- E Audit Committee shall grant an omnibus approval in respect of each financial year prior to the start of the year to RPTs in accordance with the Act, Rules & Listing Regulations.
- F The Audit Committee shall review on periodical basis:
 - I The RPTs undertaken during the period under consideration;
 - II The YTD status of RPTs under taken under omnibus approval granted by the Committee for the year.

6. Review of Policy

- A The Company Secretary and in his absence the Chief Financial Officer shall amend this Policy consequent to changes in applicable laws and regulations. Any such change will be placed before the next Board meeting.

- B The Company shall review the Policy every three years, unless such revision is necessitated earlier.
